Join leading figures from Business, Government, Media & the Arts

Attending the Clarion Awards is an opportunity to join a unique professional community which shares a commitment to ethical and inspiring communications.

Whether you are completely new to this field or someone with many years experience, you will be able to:

- discover the latest award-winning work
- meet new contacts across all sectors of industry
- compare your own work with that of your peers.

Last year's awards included a diverse range of organisations and leaders including BT, the European Environment Agency, Nationwide, Honda, Rolls-Royce, the BBC and the producers of the feature films An Inconvenient Truth and United 93. The Clarions is a vital event for anyone keen to increase their knowledge and profile in this field.

The Clarion Awards

The Clarions are now in their fifth year and aim to celebrate the finest examples of ethical communications across all major audience groups and media. From corporate communications to broadcast media, their goal is to reward communications that inspires Social Inclusion, Corporate Responsibility, Sustainable Development and Climate Change Awareness. The Clarions have rapidly become recognised as the leading awards of their kind in Europe.

This Year's Ceremony

The IVCA Clarion Awards 2007 will be presented from 2 to 5pm at the newly refurbished BFI Southbank (formerly the NFT) on the Southbank, London. The ceremony will be followed by a champagne reception in the foyer overlooking the Thames.

A Forty Year Tradition - IVCA

The International Visual Communication Association is the not-for-profit organisation that has been representing corporate and public sector communications for over 40 years.
