Supported by Briffa

Our next seminar, in association with Briffa our legal Members' partner, will advise on copyright and permission issues within the use of music. Following on from the hugely successful Copyright Seminar in July, this new event will focus specifically on;

- The Structure of Rights in Music - Including composition, recording rights and performers rights
- Types of Exploitation - Including synchronisation, copying, digetic/non-digetic, public performance
- The Rights Holders - including record companies, publishers, collection societies
- Practical Routes - including commission music, agencies, gaining clearance yourself
- Licence Provisions to be Aware of - including scope of use, exclusivity, term, rights to edit, soundtrack rights, most favoured nation.

Places are limited on this seminar.

Please return via e-mail. Early booking is essential, and must be made directly through the IVCA.

This is an early evening seminar followed by a networking event and drinks reception.

To attend, please complete the slip below and return with payment to: Dave Comley, IVCA, 19 Pepper Street, Glengall Bridge, Docklands London E14 9RP
