The screening of the Gold Winners from the IVCA Awards is a perfect opportunity for clients and producers to view the very best in corporate and public sector communications.

Winning an IVCA Gold Award is an endorsement of the highest creative and professional standards of programme making and one of the most important accolades of its kind in the World.

These media solutions can: inform; change hearts and minds; re-energise staff; teach a range of skills; and make a significant impact to a company's bottom line. Attendance is therefore essential for all creatives and commissioners who need to be aware of the very best the corporate visual communication industry can offer.
